

Congressman Earl Blumenauer with an edition of Harper's Magazine from 1960 on the crisis in the healthcare system. Congressman Blumenauer pointed out that this magazine discussed similar problems that Congress was dealing with now, and he urged the body not to wait another 40 years to act.